

No Install Options

The following options provide alternatives for those who are unable to install the full programming environment on their main computer and would otherwise be unable to continue with the module. Each of these has pros and cons but they allow you to run code ‘in the cloud’ and so mean that any internet-connected device can be used to write and run code.

UCL JupyterHub

Google Collab

Binder

